

Crew On Drifting Raft In Pacific Calls For Help

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A relief vessel with supplies for the five hungry and thirsty crew members of the raft Lehi renews its search today with an assist from airplanes.

The motorless raft was sighted from a Navy plane about 35 miles southwest of Santa Cruz Sunday but couldn't be located by the Princeton, a fishing boat with supplies aboard.

The 32-foot Lehi was towed outside San Francisco's Golden Gate Friday.

Only One Salmon

Aboard were five rank amateurs trying to drift 2,000 miles to Hawaii.

They took no water or food. They were relying upon nature in the vast Pacific to supply their needs—wind, rain, or water from a solar still, and fish for food.

They got off to a poor start. Saturday they caught one salmon—then no more fish. They made one quart of water with the still.

But instead of drifting toward Hawaii, they were carried slowly southward.

Skipper Devere Baker, 38, radioed Sunday his hope that a new tow would take the Lehi far enough into the Pacific to find a current for Hawaii.

Radio Man Fed Up

With him are Joe Fearon, son of the trip's sponsor, Dr. Arthur B. Fearon, a professor at University of San Francisco; Don C. Smith, radio operator; J. Keith Pope, newspaperman, all of the San Francisco area, and Judge Hawks of Ogden, Utah.

The Princeton has a new radio transmitter and gasoline for the Lehi.

Amateur radio operators reported that Smith, who complained of a cold, was demanding to be removed from the raft's sea-soaked decks.

HOPPERS RUIN TEXAS CROPS—Some parts of northern Texas are beset by a plague of grasshoppers that threatens large crop losses. The invasion is especially bad in the Dallas area. Above, Louis Turner, of Wylie, north of Dallas, shows his corn, stripped of leaves and fruiting ears. He said: "Nothing's left and it didn't take them long to do it." The hoppers, by the thousands, are attacking corn, alfalfa, cotton and vegetable crops. (EXCLUSIVE NEA PHOTO)

President Prods Congress As Date To Adjourn Nears

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress heads today into the scheduled final three weeks of its 1954 session with President Eisenhower reportedly prodding for stepped-up action on his program of anti-subversive measures.

Republican leaders are aiming for a July 31 adjournment. Signs are that if they don't make it, they shouldn't miss by more than a week or two.

One of the fields where action has lagged is in the President's suggestions for legislation to deal with domestic subversives. Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, said in an interview Sunday Eisenhower applied some heat at last week's conference with Capitol Hill leaders to get their bills moving.

Final Showdown On Indochina Is Urged At Geneva

By JACK BELL

BOLTON LANDING, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina today advocated the return of American representatives to the Geneva conference for an Allied showdown on Indochina.

Byrnes, former secretary of state, who is here attending the 46th annual Governors Conference, said in an interview he does not believe the United States can afford to stand aloof and thus risk being blamed before the world for failure to reach a settlement with the Communists.

Dulles Hesitates

"We could refuse to participate in any surrender agreement," he said. "But I think our representatives ought to be there to make our viewpoint known. If there is a final breakdown in efforts to get an acceptable agreement, I don't think the British and French should be able to charge it to our absence."

Dulles has hesitated about going back to the conference table because of possible domestic criticism.

Body Of Indiana Plane Crash Victim Found At Manitowoc

MANITOWOC, Wis. (AP)—A body pulled from Lake Michigan Saturday has been identified as that of Edward Parham, 40, of Bedford, one of four Indiana men missing since June 19 on a flight from Crawfordsville to Crystal Falls, Michigan.

Sheriff Les Nichols of Manitowoc County said identification was made through a driver's license found in a pocket.

Westbound Soo Line freight train number 15 was derailed at 1 a. m. today between Cuyahoga and Armstrong Creek in Wisconsin. This caused the hold up of east bound passenger train number eight due in Gladstone at 4:45. No one was injured. The derailment was caused by a broken journal.

Atomic Energy Walkout Ended

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—Operations have returned to normal at the atomic energy plant near here today with striking workers back on the job.

A strike threatening production of atomic and hydrogen bombs was called off Saturday when members of Local 550, CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers, voted to return to work immediately, reversing a previous decision to continue their walkout.

The Paducah employees followed the example of strikers at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., plant who voted Friday night to end their walkout.

One thousand workers at Paducah and 3,500 at Oak Ridge were involved in the strike.

A plan for settling the walkout was worked out in Washington by Secretary of Labor Mitchell and CIO President Walter Reuther. It calls for a government review of health, housing and community problems of all the nation's atomic workers and a study to strengthen labor-management relations in the atomic field.

The peace plan did not mention the wage issue, over which the strike was called.

Death Claims Wife Of Milton Eisenhower; Blood Clot Is Cause

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Funeral arrangements were completed today for Mrs. Milton S. Eisenhower, wife of Pennsylvania State University's president and sister-in-law of the nation's president.

Mrs. Eisenhower died Saturday at the age of 49. University officials said death was caused by a blood clot. She had been recovering from virus pneumonia.

In Washington, White House spokesmen said the President plans to attend services for the wife of his youngest brother Tuesday at State College.

President Eisenhower cancelled plans to address the annual Conference of Governors at Bolton Landing, N.Y., today. Vice President Nixon will speak to the state executives instead.

Deadline Voted On Aid Pipeline To France, Italy

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Relations Committee senators awaited a State Department okay today on a plan which by year's end could snap the foreign aid pipeline to two major U. S. Allies, France and Italy.

Acting Committee Chairman H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), who took the virtual ultimatum to department chiefs for a quick study Sunday, said he believes they welcomed it but wanted to be "perfectly clear as to just what the language means" before the senators take a final vote—perhaps at a scheduled closed session today.

Wording Tougher

The amendment, tentatively adopted without dissent in a week-end session, would shut off U. S. military and economic assistance to France and Italy Dec. 31 if they fail by then to join the European Defense Community or an acceptable substitute defense scheme.

Offered by Sen. Knowland of California, the majority leader, the new amendment is a tougher version of wording already adopted by the House when it passed the foreign aid bill now before the Senate group. Smith said it would cut in half the delivery of goods on order—"in the pipeline," as he phrased it.

The House provision, known as the Richards amendment, would deny to either country a share of 1954 or 1955 foreign aid funds if they stayed out of EDC. But it would have let them continue to get benefits from the 1951, 1952 and 1953 programs.

Asst. Secretary of State Livingston T. Merchant was quoted in Foreign Relations Committee testimony made public yesterday as saying he had no objection to the Richards amendment.

France Balks

Merchant predicted, however, that both France and Italy would join EDC this year. Four other nations—West Germany, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—have

Georgia Indian Says He Watched Brutal Kidnaping At Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Miami detectives returned Walter Lee Yow here from Georgia for further questioning today about his story that he saw 7-year-old Judith Ann Roberts raped and murdered last Wednesday.

Detectives Charles Sapp and I. J. Whitman said the 44-year-old former convict's story was vague and full of discrepancies but consistent enough to warrant bringing him back. He was arrested in Marietta, Ga., Saturday for vagrancy.

Yow told officers he was with the man who stole Judith Ann, daughter of a Baltimore lawyer and labor leader, from her bed in the home of her grandparents.

Sapp said Yow related at first that he saw his companion rape the child, then smash her head with a rock, but later insisted he waited in the car some distance away while the other man took the girl into a wooded area off fashionable Bayshore Drive.

Then Yow declared he made up the story to get out of Georgia and

Israel And Egypt In Skirmish Again

JERUSALEM (AP)—Another flare-up on the tense Israel-Egypt border costing the lives of six Egyptian soldiers and one Israeli posed a new problem today for the U.N. Palestine armistice commission.

Reports of the latest incident came Sunday as the commission issued a statement blaming both Arabs and Jews for the June 30 July 2 shooting across the no-man's land dividing Jerusalem.

Mother's Suicide Kills 2 Children

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Mrs. Jean Mann, who wanted to die to "do one thing for my children," planned it carefully.

She tucked her two children into bed, opened their bedroom window, placed a fan by their bedside, closed the doors leading into the room and sealed them with towels.

Then she turned on the gas burner in the kitchen and while she waited for death wrote an eight-page suicide note in which she declared "I was not meant to be a wife and mother." The note spoke of the need of a happy home for the children.

Sunday, officers broke into the home and found Mrs. Mann, a 26-year-old cosmetics clerk, slumped dead over the kitchen table.

In the bedroom, the children were dead too—Frances, 6, and Steven, 5.

Coroner Clyde Kissinger said Mrs. Mann made one mistake in her careful planning. The open bedroom window created a draft for the fan to suck gas fumes from the kitchen and across the sleeping children.

Mrs. Mann's husband Paul, 24, a hospital orderly, was in Ft. McClellan, Ala., for a two-week National Guard encampment.

Angel Gets Wings And Appendicitis

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP)—Angel got his wings the hard way.

Pfc. Angel O. Gomez suffered an appendicitis attack just before his fifth and final jump as a paratrooper trainee here.

He concealed his condition and made the jump anyway. On the way down, he passed out. Medics in the drop zone disengaged his parachute and rushed him to the hospital.

Gomez had to sit up in bed to have his wings pinned on by Col. Nathaniel R. Hoskot, who said: "What you did wasn't very smart, but . . . it showed a lot of guts and pride in the unit."

Plains States Broil In Heat; 115 In Kansas

(By The Associated Press)

The blanket of warm air which ran temperatures over 100 degrees generally over the Rocky Mountain and Plains States Sunday was expected to spread into the Great Lakes region today.

Fair and hot was the picture, the weather bureau in Chicago said, with scattered precipitation and moderate temperatures. Early morning temperatures in the high 70s and 80s appeared to bear it out.

Nebraska and Kansas broiled Sunday under the highest reported temperatures, but the 100-plus heat extended from Utah and Colorado through the Dakotas and Iowa, and southward through Texas.

A sampling of Sunday temperatures:

Kansas—Pittsburgh 115, Wichita 110.

Nebraska—Burwell 114, Norfolk 113.

Colorado—Denver 102, equals July record.

Iowa—Sioux City 105, Des Moines 103.

Missouri—Kansas City 108.

Texas—Fort Worth and Wichita Falls 106, Dallas 108.

Fanatic Slays Woman As Red In Battle Creek

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Police said a man, found in the apartment building where a Battle Creek mother was shot Sunday, told them he killed her because she was "the biggest Communist in the world."

Robert Roscoe, 28, an unemployed door-to-door shoe salesman, was held by police. They said he told them "I'm an FBI agent and I've been after her for a long time."

Police said Roscoe, a 22-caliber rifle in his hands, was found in a hallway near the room where the body of Mrs. Beulah Pontius, 40, mother of six children, was lying.

She had been shot twice in the chest and once in the chin with a 22-caliber rifle.

Roscoe, police said, told of also planning to kill the woman's husband, Chester, 42, because "they were both Communists."

Only minutes before the shooting the husband had left for work at a Battle Creek bakery.

New York Newspaper Report Says British Queen Expects Baby

LONDON (AP)—Buckingham Palace maintained its customary silence today on a New York newspaper report that Queen Elizabeth II is expecting her third child.

The sources commented that the Queen has not canceled future engagements. Such cancellations would be an almost sure sign the monarch is expecting.

British newspapers paid scant attention to the report.

China Funnels More Supplies To Communists

By FORREST EDWARDS

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Vietminh legions tightened their pincers on Hanoi today but the war capital's French defenders claimed they had beaten back an attack by 3,000 rebels only 20 miles from the city and killed at least 300 of the Communist-led force.

The French said they repulsed the attack on three French Union posts south of Hanoi after five hours of bitter fighting Sunday.

Rebels Hit Outposts

The high command in Saigon announced later French Union losses totaled 90 killed and wounded.

Other rebel units surged in from the northeast and northwest to strike at French outposts 25 miles above the imperiled city.

Clashes were reported Sunday at scores of points as the Vietminh kept up their pressure.

No Planes To Spare

So busy were the French trying to hold their shrunken Red River delta defenses that they were unable to spare planes for more than token harassment of the long truck convoys rumbling south from the Red China frontier.

French reconnaissance pilots report that Red China is funneling more supplies into northern Indochina than she did in the days before the fall of the French bastion of Dien Bien Phu.

But a French briefing officer declared, "We do not have the planes to spare for more than harassment

Walpole Island Fire Kills Six

ALGONAC (AP)—A father and five of his six children were burned to death this morning in a fire that consumed their five-room frame home on a Walpole Island Indian reservation in neighboring Ontario.

A futile bucket brigade was formed by nearly a hundred islanders, but the six persons, all Chippewa Indians, were killed by the flames. They were found dead in their beds.

Dead were: Benjamin Jones, 37, the father; his three daughters, Gloria, 14, Nannette, 10 and Mabel, 6, and two of his sons, Charles, 4 and Edwin, 2.

Both Jones' wife, Vera, 34, and his oldest son, Ralph, 16, were visiting relatives at Marine City, Mich., when the fire occurred.

They were returning to Walpole Island in the St. Clair River as rescuers carried the charred bodies of their family out of the ruins.

Jones, employed as a laborer in Algonac, had just completed the cottage, building it with his own hands.

Referring to Cole's speech, Churchill said:

"I was astounded by all that he said about the hydrogen bomb and results of experiments made more than a year before by the United States at Eniwetok Atoll."

"Very little notice was taken over here of Mr. Sterling Cole's revelations, but when some Japanese fishermen were slightly affected by the radioactivity generated by a second explosion at Bikini an intense sensation was caused in this country."

Water Ski Towboat Propeller Slashes Minneapolis Youth

MT. CLEMENS (AP)—Hundreds of spectators watched as a Minneapolis youth was slashed and critically injured by a speedboat's twin propellers Sunday during a water skiing thrill show.

James Bleeker, 22, was thrown from a tow boat on which he was tending lines for the water skiers. The spectators screamed in horror as the propellers tore into him.

Physicians at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital said he would be crippled by the injury if he survives. Bleeker had just rejoined the show after being discharged from the Army.

Thousands Homeless In Danube Flood Area; Nations Rush Supplies

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Relief supplies for thousands of homeless victims of central Europe's worst flood in centuries poured into stricken Austria and Germany today.

Holland, Sweden, Switzerland and the Saar were the first to offer bedding, food and clothes to thousands of families made homeless by the raging Danube and a dozen tributaries. Their five-day rampage has claimed at least 24 lives on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

The aid began to arrive as rescue workers struggled to reach submerged Austrian and German towns where inhabitants were still stranded on rooftops and upper floors. More than 3,000 American soldiers have been taking part in the rescue work.

Crops Destroyed

Sketchy reports from Czechoslovakia and Hungary indicated those two Danube Valley countries have been hard hit by the floods. Prague and Budapest radios said Communist authorities had ordered entire farm communities evacuated and that many hamlets were under water and crops destroyed.

It was not known what the death toll was in the two Iron Curtain lands. Nine deaths were reported Sunday night in Communist East Germany.

In West Germany, skies cleared and flood waters began to subside, but thousands of acres of rich farmland were still under water. Countless houses, bridges and industrial plants were damaged—some beyond repair.

Rescues Continue

In the venerable town of Passau, surrounded by the Danube, Inn and Ilz rivers, waters inundated at least a third of the community. An estimated 1,000 were homeless there.

While the worst seemed over in Germany, the churning Danube forced thousands more victims from farms and villages along its banks in Austria.

The steel city of Linz, where 24,000 persons have been evacuated, desperately attempted to stem the tide of destruction. Police and firemen were still rescuing hundreds from rooftops and upper floors.

Washington Visit Dispelled Distrust, Churchill Reports

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill said today he went to Washington for his conference with President Eisenhower because he "was deeply concerned at the lack of information we possessed" about the hydrogen bomb.

"I thought I ought to have a personal meeting with President Eisenhower at the first convenient opportunity," the 79-year-old Prime Minister told the House of Commons.

Astonished By Speech

Murmurs of approval echoed through the house.

Churchill said a speech about the hydrogen bomb by Sterling Cole, chairman of the joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, on Feb. 17 had astonished him.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), Chairman of the joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, said in Chicago on that day that a thermonuclear test in the Marshall Islands in 1952 "completely obliterated the test island in the Eniwetok Atoll."

"It tore a cavity in the floor of the ocean—a crater measuring a full mile in diameter and 175 feet in depth at its lowest point. 'Within this crater one could place 140 structures the size of our nation's capitol,'" he said.

Referring to Cole's speech, Churchill said:

"I was astounded by all that he said about the hydrogen bomb and results of experiments made more than a year before by the United States at Eniwetok Atoll."

"Very little notice was taken over here of Mr. Sterling Cole's revelations, but when some Japanese fishermen were slightly affected by the radioactivity generated by a second explosion at Bikini an intense sensation was caused in this country."

He said his conference with President Eisenhower was the most agreeable and fruitful he had ever had.

"I never had the feeling of general good will more strongly brought in upon me."

Before the talks took place, he said, other international problems arose, such as the Vietnam operations in Indochina "which were being sustained by the Communist government of China."

Michigan's death toll forgot to take a holiday again this weekend as 16 persons died, most of them in traffic.

Highway accidents claimed nine lives while five persons drowned and two died in miscellaneous mishaps.

However, the total was a scant third of the grim 47 deaths recorded over the long Fourth of July holiday last week.

Strike Of Goodyear Workers Idles 23,000 In 10 Rubber Plants

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Some 3,000 CIO rubber workers voted unanimously here Sunday to continue a strike against the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. The walkout has idled 23,000 workers in 10 Goodyear plants across the country, including one at Jackson, Mich.

The rally followed a statement by Goodyear President E. J. Thomas that the strike may result in Goodyear losing part of its market and that this "would affect adversely the number of people on our payroll."

The strikers, who walked out last Wednesday, seek a 12-cent overall hourly pay raise

Clearing House For Tourist Facilities Is Announced Here

The Delta County Tourist Council is establishing a "clearing house service" to assist tourists to find accommodations in this area, it was announced today by Clarence Morrow, Tourist Council president.

When operators of lodging facilities for tourists fill up and no longer have vacancies they are asked to telephone the clearing house.

Proprietors of tourist accommodations are asked to call Mead's, phone 262, if they fill up before 10 p. m.; and to call the Stone House, phone 3397, to report being filled after that hour.

Information concerning vacancies for tourists can be obtained by calling the clearing house, if the visitor should inquire for about accommodations.

Morrow emphasized that no change is being made by either Mead's or the Stone House for the service they offer, and that the clearing house "does not send guests to any cabin operator but does act as a central point to advise where there are vacancies."

The clearing house will operate starting today through Labor Day.

North Central Line Sets New Record

More persons flew North Central Airlines in June than in any other month in the airline's six-year, five-month history.

Preliminary traffic figures show that a total of 28,845 revenue passengers were carried on the company's five-state system last month.

H. N. Carr, airline president, says the company's June passenger business is a 29 per cent increase over May and 26 per cent over June a year ago.

Daily average in June was 692 passengers. Fifteen times during the month the company topped its all-time single-day passenger record of 954 set last Sept. 4. The new record was set June 25 when 1,230 were carried.

North Central hopes to exceed the 30,000 mark this month in its efforts to gain No. 1 position among the nation's 14 local service airlines in passenger business.

Upper Peninsula Briefs

IRON MOUNTAIN—More persons flew North Central Airlines in June than in any other month in the airline's six-year, five-month history. Preliminary traffic figures show that a total of 28,845 revenue passengers were carried on the company's five-state system last month. H. N. Carr, airline president, says the company's June passenger business is a 9 per cent increase over May and 6 per cent over June a year ago.

MARQUETTE—A Marquette man, selected by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers as the oldest active railroad engineer in Michigan was honored this week by Holiday Magazine. Albert C. Johnson, 124 West Michigan St., is 78 years old. He has been employed by the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway for 51 years.

LITTLE LAKE—Capacity enrollment for the Episcopal Junior High Conference at Little Lake, in Marquette county, beginning tomorrow, has made it impossible to accept all applications, and some young people will be disappointed, according to the Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan.

Clear And Warm Forecast Here

The hot humid weather prevailed over most parts of the country, but it was pleasant in the vicinity of Escanaba over the weekend.

According to S. E. Decker of the Escanaba Weather Bureau, a high of 68 was recorded here, while a good portion of the rest of the country suffered with 100 degree temperatures.

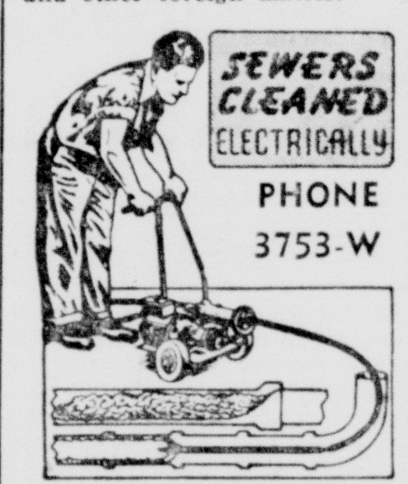

The mercury, however, is now climbing. At 11 this morning, the reading was 74 and should the wind continue in its westerly course, temperatures will reach 85 degrees along the shore today as well as inland, Decker said.

Very little change in the weather for tomorrow is the forecast with clear skies continuing and not much chance of rain.

New Cleaning Process Makes Clothes Look and Feel Better!

by Melton McGovern

Our ultra-new dry cleaning process (cleaned AND rinsed) has another feature you'll want to know about. It's this!

By rigid control of relative humidity, your clothes not only emerge up to 8 times cleaner than ever before—

NOW THEY FEEL BETTER
—because fabric resilience is so well controlled that the fibres now contain exactly the tiniest amount of moisture necessary for them to have ALL the liveliness and bounce they should have.

RESULT: Clothes that are more pliable, more resilient, less prone to wrinkling, and less inclined to absorb undue amounts of soil or stain.

RESULT: They feel better, stay fresh longer, look better and best of all—they last longer because every natural condition of longest fabric life has been restored with each cleaning.

We positively guarantee that unless you, too, agree that this is the finest cleaning you've ever had, your money will be refunded without question. Try it today. You'll want it all the time.

State Has 34 New Polio Cases; None In Vaccine Tests

LANSING (AP)—The State Health Department said that 34 new cases of infantile paralysis were reported in Michigan during the past week. None of the cases participated in the Salk vaccine tests.

There have been 204 cases reported so far this year compared to 178 during the same period last year and 90 during the period in 1952.

Of the 34 cases, 10 were reported in four of the 10 counties that participated in the polio vaccine tests. Six were from Oakland County, two from Macomb County and one each from Calhoun and Lenawee counties.

Motorist, 83, Unhurt By 150-Foot Plunge

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Clayton Johnson rode his old sedan over a 150 foot cliff and lived to become an optimist.

"I'll probably live to be 100," he quipped, "if I quit driving."

Johnson is 83. He pulled off a road high in Griffith Park Friday to enjoy the scenery.

"Guess I dozed off," he told an ambulance crew who rescued him. "First thing I knew I was at the bottom of this canyon."

But the crew didn't reach him at the bottom of the canyon. Johnson climbed back up the mountainside and flagged a motorist, who telephoned for help.

"I didn't even get a scratch," Johnson mused.

Acute accidental poisoning accounts for about 1,500 annual deaths in the United States.

Book Preserves Current Wisdom

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"It is a rather pleasant experience to be alone in a bank at night."

Now who would say a thing like that? Well, as a matter of fact, Willie Sutton, the notorious bank bandit, tossed off the remark while philosophizing on the rewards of a career that has kept him behind prison bars most of his life.

It is one of several thousand quotations collected by Jim Simpson and Ann Gillis, the sprightly lady who bosses NBC's "Who Said That?", the most durable of all TV panel quiz programs.

Feeling that Bartlett did a good job for his day but that someone ought to also preserve the antic wit and gilded wisdom of the current generation, Simpson and Miss Gillis are bundling together for book publication the quotations they feel best reflects our times.

Most books of quotations lean too heavily on poets and politicians. Miss Gillis and her co-workers have a more cosmopolitan approach. They see no reason why a gangster—or a housewife—shouldn't be preserved by posterity. As a result their volume promises to reflect the real mental life of our recent past more accurately than a formal history.

Here, for example, are a few gems from their collection which should help give posterity some kind of insight on the kind of human beings who dwell in the middle of the 20th century:

"A committee is a group that keeps minutes and loses hours"—Milton Berle.

"May the Lord bless you real good"—favorite benediction of evangelist Billy Graham.

"Behold the Turtle: he makes progress only when his neck is out"—James B. Conant, former president of Harvard.

"Washington is a place where half the people are waiting to be discovered—and the other half are afraid they will be"—Rep. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

"A good education is harmful to a dancer. A good calf is better than a good head"—Agnes De Mille.

"The way for the armed forces to win an atomic war is to make certain it never starts"—Gen. Omar Bradley.

"I haven't sold Bibles all my life"—Frank Costello.

"American soldiers have taught me better than I could have learned in any other way what America means to me"—Francis Cardinal Spellman.

Gadget To Trap Warfare Germs

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest and most valuable gadget the military has for countering germ warfare attack is a flimsy disc of paperlike substance, slightly larger than a silver dollar.

The chief of the Army's chemical warfare service, Maj. Gen. William M. Creasy, calls it a significant step toward "development of a revolutionary detection device around which a workable defense" against stealthy bacteriological warfare is being built.

In a recent speech, Creasy mentioned "a very thin filter which will trap bacteria, permitting them to be identified within 15 hours, or one sixth of the time previously required."

The Defense Department, in response to inquiries, today displayed the gadget, an unimpressive disc looking like it might have been cut from a thin sheet of cross-ruled paper.

But its production took the brains of some wartime German bacteriological warfare experts and improvements for mass producing by American experts who captured similar filters at the end of World War II.

Like the membrane filters used in all laboratories, this one is designated as a "millipore" filter. Its extreme porosity allows water to run through it quickly and freely, but trapping on its surface all micro-organisms or their poisonous products which constitute one of the chief instruments of bacteriological warfare.

On the surface of the disc marked off in small squares, are deposited all germs or their products in a liquid—water, milk or other drink. The squares provide a method for bacteria count.

Under a microscope and other common testing apparatus of a laboratory, the presence of a dangerously high bacterial count, together with the type of bacteria, can be spotted in a matter of hours.

Until development of this method a gelatin plate-culture method was needed, a process requiring almost four days.

Averaging 18 quarts daily, Pabst Burke Beets, owned by Johnson Brothers of Hermansville, recently completed an official herd improvement registry production record totalling 13,799 lbs. milk and 538 lbs. butterfat in 365 days.

Testing was supervised by Michigan State College, in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Milked twice daily, Pabst Burke Beets, was seven years and one month old when her test began. Her total was about 2½ times the production of the average U. S. cow.

Industrial Kit For Communities Ready

A Community Industrial Development Kit has just been added to the U. S. Department of Commerce Business Library of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, Hugh D. Grow announces.

He explained the kit consists of 14 separate booklets, each providing basic information on some phase of that timely subject grouped under four main classifications: 1. What Prospective Industry Wants to Know About Your Community; 2. How to Find the Prospects; 3. How Other Communities Have Developed Industry; 4. Fitting Industry Into the Community Plan.

Mr. Grow emphasized that information now is available for reference use at his office by anyone in the Escanaba trading area, whether or not a member of his organization. Personal copies of the complete kit or any portions of it may be obtained through his office at the government printing cost.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Law Of Supply And Demand Is Powerful Economic Force

THE law of supply and demand is a powerful force in economics.

Rationing and governmental controls were wiped out last week in England after 14 years. Immediately prices soared, particularly in butcher shops. The merchants and their suppliers anticipated a heavy demand for unrationed commodities and the products were priced accordingly.

But British housewives just went window shopping. They passed up the high priced goods with the result that prices promptly began to skid.

Call it a buyers' strike or whatever you wish, but it really is another application of the age old law of supply and demand. The supply was there all right but the demand did not exist at the asking prices.

No government has ever found a truly effective way to beat the law of supply and demand. Price controls and rationing orders are designed to accomplish it but they never really succeed. They create black markets which in turn creates greater problems and more evils.

The law of supply and demand is the strength of the American capitalistic system. It is the basis for the competitive system which urges production, efficiency and mass markets. It is the consumers' weapon against excessive prices, too.

Foreign Aid Does Not Buy Friendship

IN the debate on the $3,470,000,000 foreign aid bill, Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio made an argument that bears a careful, critical look.

Noting that the United States has poured out more than $141 billion in aid since 1940 (and here he obviously is including Lend-Lease in World War II), Brown said we "now have more enemies and less friends than when we started."

Implicit in this statement is the notion that we have sought to "buy friendship" abroad with American dollars, and have failed. A good many lawmakers in recent years have been making similar comment, often quite outspokenly and in the manner of one making a great revelation.

Actually, no sensible legislator or diplomat ever imagines that money purchases the affection of foreign peoples. Aid can help to cement existing friendships, or help to develop them. But many other important factors must also be present.

We have not given assistance to many nations, in war and peace, in the hope of thereby winning their unwavering loyalty to all America's views.

We have given it because we want these countries to remain free for their own sake, and because they must stay free if they are to be a part of our own defensive barrier against communism.

In some instances, we have quite understood that the recipients of aid might not only disagree with us on many things, but actively dislike us. But that has not kept us from extending the aid, and it should not.

Thus the point about what friendships we have or have not won with our dollars is largely irrelevant. The real question is: "Are the peoples we have helped still free, and in a position to aid the cause of freedom in the world (including America)?"

The answer must be a resounding "yes," with the single possible exception of Indo-China, now tottering on the brink. But Indo-China has been embroiled in a war most of the time since aid programs have been operating.

Is there any doubt what would have been the fate of France and Italy, and perhaps others, if we had not granted substantial assistance in the dark days after World War II?

FISHING SITES (Marquette Eagle-Star)

The Michigan Conservation Department's report on the number of acres acquired in each Upper Peninsula county to assure public access to fishing waters does not present a true picture. Gogebic County, for example, is listed with 57 acres and Delta with 1,480. But the situation is not as lopsided as these figures might indicate. Gogebic County has much fishing water accessible without the state acquiring public access property. A county park is located on Lake Gogebic, a good wall-eyed pike lake. The Middle Branch of the Ontonagon, one of the best trout streams in the Peninsula, can be reached from numerous public access points, many of them county or township roads.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—One thing to be learned from our headaches in Guatemala is that the seeds of communism are seldom planted in a hurry. They take time to sprout and are almost always nourished by a wave of anti-Americanism.

In Guatemala, the Red seeds actually began sprouting back in the days of President Jorge Ubico's harsh dictatorship, and the tragedy is that his nephew and secretary Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, is now the new dictator, having eased out two rival colonels.

An entirely different, though dangerous, situation is brewing in a country which long has been the best friend of the USA—Brazil. And now is the time for us to do something about it—not later, as in Guatemala.

Brazil is not threatened by communism or revolt. But it's been swept by a wave of anti-Americanism, thanks largely to one thing—coffee.

And if it's true that anti-Americanism usually precedes communism, then now is the time to mend our fences in Brazil. Furthermore, it isn't healthy to have a country which has gone down the line for us in crisis after crisis suddenly become bitterly sore.

NO BRAZILIAN PRICE SUPPORTS

Brazilians have long known the U. S. A. as a country with high farm price supports, where the farmer is guaranteed a reasonable price despite a slump. Brazil up until a few months ago did not have such supports. Its coffee prices went up and down, with the coffee grower sometimes using his coffee to pave roads because it was a glut on the market.

Last winter there was a frost in the great coffee-growing state of Parana. Coffee bushes were killed, some farmers went bankrupt, luckier farmers made a killing. Coffee growers in other countries were especially lucky—because the price of coffee zoomed. American housewives had to pay more, but Brazil, which suffered the frost, got all the blame.

U. S. newspaper editorials condemning Brazil naturally are read in Brazil. Speeches by Congressmen criticizing Brazil have been published widely there. And they all add up to just one thing—resentment against the United States by a country which has been our best friend.

Today there's a development which may make things worse. Some U. S. coffee importers are boycotting Brazilian coffee for African coffee. Brazilian sales have dropped alarmingly. This will mean only one thing: depression. And depression is the surest breeder of communism. If the latter ever gets started in the biggest country of Latin America, the U. S. A. will really be out of luck.

Here is some breakfast coffee information you may not know about: For about 75 years a hot trade war has raged between colonial Asia-Africa and Latin America . . . This dates back to 1876 when an Englishman smuggled the seeds of 17 rubber trees out of Brazil to Asia. Thus began the rubber empire of the Malays and Indonesia . . . Somewhat the same thing happened with quinine, chocolate, coffee, tobacco. All were developed in Latin America, except tobacco; but, taking advantage of slave labor in Asia-Africa, big European exploiters moved to develop those areas . . . That slave labor has now revolted, which is one reason for Communist success in Asia, one reason why Indo-China is falling so rapidly . . . The social revolution came earlier in Latin America. Wages, though still not high, were much higher than the African-coolie slave labor of the European colonies. So Africa and Asia flourished in the race to grow tropical products—except for coffee. In Latin America, and especially Brazil, coffee remained king . . . Today we might as well kiss off Southeast Asia as any steady supplier of the quinine, tin, rubber we fought to get back from the Japanese after Pearl Harbor . . . Arab restlessness in North Africa will soon put that area in the same uncertain boat. Also it's a long way from these areas in case of war, and the atomic submarine is going to make wartime shipping almost impossible . . . so it will pay us not to forget our good neighbors in Latin America, even if frost sometimes increases their prices. They are close at hand and dependable—unless we let depression and communism get a foothold.

Things you may not have known about a good neighbor: In three wars Brazil has come to the aid of the U. S. A. When we fought Spain over Cuba, Brazil was the only Latin country coming to our side. She had just taken delivery on two new cruisers in London, and though they had not even been in Brazilian waters, they were ordered put at the disposal of the U. S. Navy . . . Six days after World War I was declared, Brazil came in too, immediately amalgamated her entire fleet with the U. S. fleet . . . World War II could not have been won in the same length of time had not Brazil given us key bases on the "hump."

Into The Past

Three Men in a Tub

New Technique For Air Combat Is Sidle Up Alongside Enemy

YUMA, Ariz. —(NEA)—Every high school struggler with the rigors of geometry remembers early in the book this hypothesis: "Two straight lines can intersect at only one point."

Here at the Yuma Weapons Training Center, the Air Defense Command is continuing teaching along the same lines—but it is a whole new philosophy of combat called "lead collision course firing."

It involves application of the old geometric axiom to targets moving from 200 to 450 miles an hour, and planes that go 900 feet per second which launch rockets that close at 2600 feet per second. There is no time for blackboard pondering.

Col. Robert F. Worley, of Chanute, Kans., has converted Yuma to rockets in less than a year, and the USAF has just run its first rocketry competition in history here. As commander of the Weapons Training Center, Col. Worley explains "lead collision course" this way:

"It's the same basic idea as that employed by the third baseman when he catches a hard hit ball and makes the play to first," he says. "He throws to the bag because he knows the first baseman will be there when the ball arrives."

Gone are the days of old when the intrepid aviator sneaked in on the tail of his enemy, and made a Swiss cheese out of him from an easy rearward position.

Now, the pet approach is from right angles to the course of the target, which protects the attacker by providing a bare minimum of exposure to the weapons of his target.

The switch came about to meet the requirements for all-weather and day-or-night fighter-interception, as the U. S. has become more and more concerned with the over-the-North Pole highway route available to the Soviet Union and pointed painfully into the vitals of this country.

Knowing that the attack might come at any time, and from any angle, and that every minute would have to count to get at it before it reached the bomb release line, every possible electronic and mechanical contrivance has been tied to a team of specialists in the Air Defense Command units.

Developments have gone so far now that radar controllers on the ground lead planes to targets lock them on, and the rockets are fired automatically.

In most cases the pilot of the plane never sees his target. He just finds out how he did over the phone from the radar man—and in Yuma they have been doing very well.

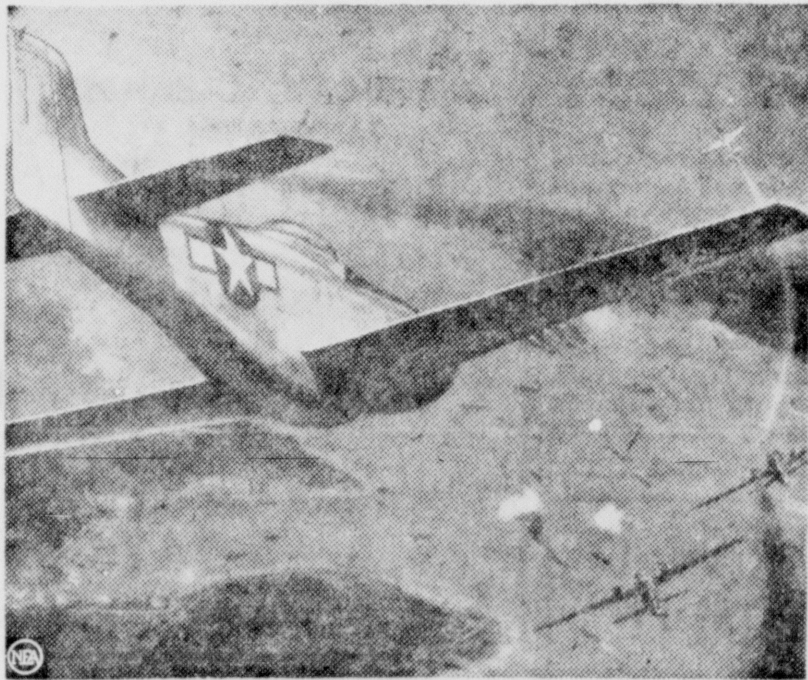

The 2.75 rocket, a slightly bloated, yard-long gas-pipe pointed at one end and finned at the other, is the weapon. A hit from one of these will destroy any aircraft in the world. It has the blast equivalent of a 75-millimeter artillery piece, and is referred to in the barely sub-sonic world of its employment as the "Mighty Mouse."

Maj. James Jabara, the world's first jet ace and No. 2 MIG-killer in Korea, is on the staff of the Yuma Weapons Center and remembers his geometry days in Wichita, Kans., high school as something like pure torture.

"I never could see much reason to get excited about where two straight lines would intersect on the blackboard in school," he says. "But, brother, when they intersect out here at some point—there's no doubt about the point because it's really a blast."

mathematics teachers the world over to learn that the men who study some of its application here get up at 3:30 a. m. to go to class and can't seem to wait to get aloft to prove the age-old geometric contention about collision.

So They Say

To tell a responsible executive the degree to which he should cooperate with members of Congress would be like telling him how to suck eggs. You just give him one and tell him to go ahead in his own way.—Defense Secretary Wilson of Stevens' cooperation with McCarthy committee.

For us to do it (withdraw from Asia) would mean not only the loss of Asia quickly, but the loss of Europe as well. The balance of power would be so upset, not only in manpower but in strategic resources, that the conquest of Europe would follow.—Senate Majority Leader Knowland.

The heroism of the gallant garson at Dien Bien Phu . . . will forever stand as a symbol of the free world's determination to resist Communist aggression.—President Eisenhower.

When you become 40, you should take it a little slower, work a little harder, take a little more time to think, and you will be all right.—Ex-President Truman to newsmen on his 70th birthday.

I don't see how in the name of God you can fight anybody like (Senator) McCarthy. I never saw such cruelty . . . such arrogance.—Army Counsel Joseph Welch.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

CHILDREN'S HERO—Came back from vacation with some snapshots—but not the photographic kind. These have to do with incidents amusing and otherwise encountered while away from the job the past two weeks.

There was the episode at St. Ignace, about 10 days ago, when Roy Rogers of Wild West and Trigger fame, came to town on his way to visit friends at Mackinac Island. He had on a ten-gallon hat, Western riding boots—but had no horse.

You see, he came in by plane, went from the airport to the dock by taxi, and thence by boat to the island. There he was a guest for a couple days aboard the palatial yacht "Sis", owned by the Atlas family.

St. Ignace youngsters, hearing that Roy Rogers was in town, waited at the airport for his return but missed seeing him because his plane took off at an unscheduled time.

Note: Leo Ruotsala of Rock, member of the Atlas yacht's crew, visited friends in St. Ignace about the same time. He reported the kids would have been disappointed because Roy wore a plain business suit, no six guns, and aside from the boots and Stetson would have passed unnoticed in a crowd.

OVER THE WAVES—Folks at St. Ignace are chucking about the gullibility of tourists from the Middle West, who are coming to the Straits looking for the Straits Bridge.

Some tall tales are being told to them by the natives, largely because of the tourists' habit of asking simple questions.

At Castle Rock, a natural limestone formation, a lady visitor from Ohio asked:

"Will the bridge start right here from the top of this rock?"

"No," replied an oldtimer, "they have to move it over to the south side of town."

Other tourists, recalling information gleaned from hasty reading of the news, expect to see the bridge completed and to drive across on it. They are surprised to find the schedule for the big bridge project does not call for completion until the fall of 1956.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS—On a trip to Sack Bay, south of Fayette on the Garden Peninsula in Delta County, we were impressed by the large beds of old-fashioned roses surrounding many of the homes.

These roses are different than you will see anywhere else—small pink roses with many pointed petals, fragrant white double roses, and even a few moss roses that wandered from flower beds to grow along the roadsides.

Perhaps it is not so unusual after all, because Sack Bay this year will observe the 100th anniversary of its settlement. The Delta County Historical Society will next month hold a summer meeting there.

At several places about the old homes, some made of logs and now falling to ruin, you will find large beds of spicy spearmint. Probably no place was "home" to a pioneer housewife until she had a herb garden and some roses planted at the door.

JUST LIKE HOME—The Sack Bay-Fayette-Burnt Bluff shoreline, in many geological aspects similar to the Straits of Mackinac area, has none of the tourist rush to be found at the latter location.

Fayette offers a quiet harbor for yachtsmen and impressive scenery. It was there we saw a large power yacht, somewhat beamy but altogether seaworthy, from an Illinois port. And on the foredeck was a large box of planted pansies!

In the morning the two ladies on the yacht came out on deck, dressed in house frocks, and sat themselves down by their sea-going flower garden, no doubt feeling very much at home so far away from home.

And to conclude with a truism: All of us like to travel but always take something from home with us, and leave something of ourselves behind.

Rodeo Rider Given Up As Dead Finds First Wife After 5 Years

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—The soldier was telling of his rodeo experiences when a startled expression came over his face and he blurted out:

"It can't be true—it's my first wife."

A pause, then:

"My god, baby, I've searched all over the country for you."

And that's how a slim attractive proofreader and the husband she had believed dead five years were reunited Friday night in the newsroom of the Newport News Daily Press, where the soldier was being interviewed.

The two, Mrs. Wayne Ferguson and Donald Eugene (Tex) Tinkle, had given up hope of ever seeing each other again and both since had remarried.

Mrs. Ferguson, 24, believed Tinkle was killed in a rodeo accident in 1949 at Camden, N.J. Tinkle, 25, now a soldier at nearby Ft. Eustis, obtained a divorce in Nevada in 1951 on grounds of desertion after two years of fruitless searching for her.

The two were separated in Roanoke, Va. in 1949 shortly after their daughter—who'll be 5 years old Monday—was born and Tinkle suffered a serious leg and ankle injury in a rodeo accident. Tinkle left his wife—then a trick rider—in Roanoke and went to Camden with the show.

"A few days after he left, I received a wire from Camden saying he had been killed in a bad rodeo accident," Mrs. Ferguson said. "He had been injured so badly so many times... I accepted it without question."

She remarried—an Air Force sergeant stationed at Langley Air Force Base—in 1951. They now have two children.

Another couple, not knowing Tinkle was married, took him in their trailer with the rodeo to Nova Scotia after the Camden mishap. He said there were blank spots in his memory but about six months later he began to remember his past and returned to Roanoke to search for his wife.

Tinkle remarried last year and was drafted in November. His second wife is with him at Ft. Eustis. Mrs. Ferguson lives with her husband at nearby Warwick.

The two couples spent the evening together reminiscing and comparing notes of the last five years. Said Mrs. Ferguson:

"It's wonderful to see Tex again but we've both grown up and we're both taken up different ways of life. We wouldn't be happy going back together again. We're just so happy to see each other—all four of us."

Farmers Facing Sharp Cutbacks

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers now have their first full picture in a federal crop report of the extent they will be called upon in 1956 to cut back in production.

For many important crops, it will be one of the sharpest cutbacks ever proposed by agriculture department officials under crop control programs.

A department report last week on this year's crop prospects indicated that despite record high surpluses, farmers expect to harvest slightly more land this year than last. Farm officials—worried over six billion dollars worth of farm surpluses under federal price support programs—had urged a reduction of nearly 10 per cent in the acreage.

Farmers did cut down on such surplus crops as cotton and wheat, but they ignored government recommendations on corn and put the diverted cotton and wheat land to other cash crops instead of taking it out of cultivation.

Apparently anticipating such shifting this year, Secretary of Agriculture Benson recently announced control plans for 1955 which will be designed to cut back acreages of many crops to the 1953 level, as well as to require still further reductions in cotton and wheat.

Taking into account the acreage expansions in non-controlled crops this year, the programs outlined by Secretary Benson would call for these cutbacks next year: oats 6.7 per cent, barley 51, rye 23, flaxseed, 25.7, rice 12, sorghums 49 dry beans 13, dry peas 42, soybeans 20, and peanuts 2.

Under the 1955 program farmers will be required to make such cutbacks or lose price support aid. This year they were free to divert land from cotton and wheat into other crops without losing price support assistance.

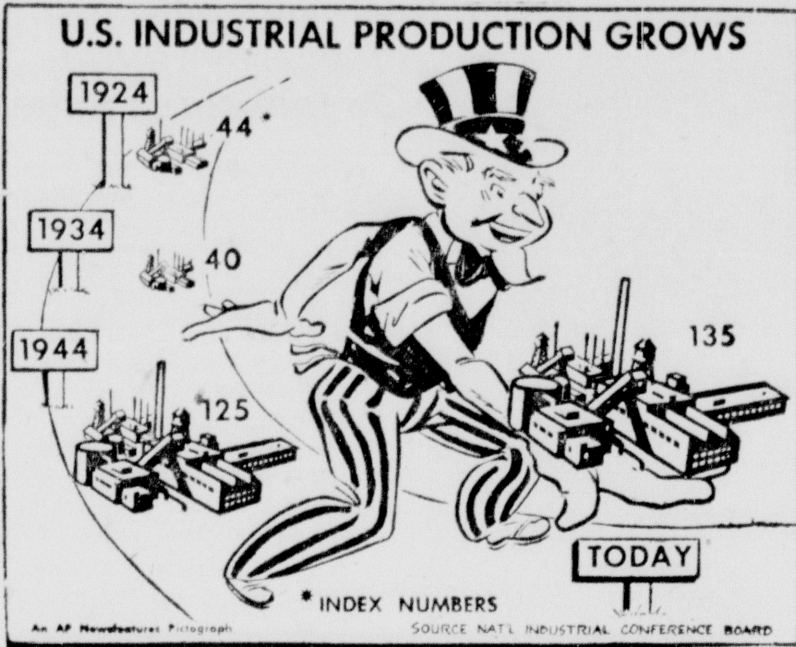

Film Actress Accused Of Hit-Run Driving In Death Of Young Boy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lynne Baggett, 30-year-old movie actress and estranged wife of producer Samuel Spiegel, has been ordered to appear for preliminary hearing Thursday on manslaughter and hit-run driving charges in the death of a young boy.

She was arrested Friday and released on $5,000 bond.

Killed in an automobile collision Wednesday was Joel Watnick, 9. Police said they traced the other automobile involved in the accident to actor George Tobias, but he told them he had loaned the car to Miss Baggett the day of the crash.

Witnesses said they saw a woman get out of a car after the crash, look at the boy and then drive off.

Backing Of McCarthy Like Kiss Of Death, Says Jersey Governor

DENVER (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey declared that it begins to appear that support of Sen. Joseph McCarthy is "the kiss of death" for a political candidate.

He made the blast at the Wisconsin Republican in an address prepared for delivery at Denver County Democratic assembly.

"Only a few short months ago," he said, "Sen. McCarthy was the fair-haired boy of the Republican National Committee. He was sent on speaking engagements around the country to promote Republican prospects in the coming election. But it begins to appear that McCarthy's support is the kiss of death. You saw what happened in Maine the other day, when a McCarthy-sponsored candidate was beaten five-to-one in the primary election for the United States Senate."

"In a series of speeches last spring, McCarthy described the years of Democratic ascendancy—from 1933 to 1953—as 20 years of treason! It is doubtful if there has been a greater political bonehead play since the presidential election of 1884 between James G. Blaine and Grover Cleveland."

Theodore P. Strunk, Muskegon County comptroller, said that in his three years in office his job has tended to become more one of public relations than of finance.

Floyd J. Poole, Jackson County Clerk, suggested that a county chairman, similar in function to a mayor or governor, might be elected by the county at large to solve this problem.

Summer Styles Demand A Pretty Shoulderline

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

No matter how carefully you make up your face, you can't expect to look your best at this time of year unless you give some attention to grooming your neck and shoulders. Warm-weather fashions demand it.

To encourage circulation and thus give your skin a pretty, soft, pink glow, use a complexion brush on your neck and shoulders during your daily bath. Brush with a light rotary motion.

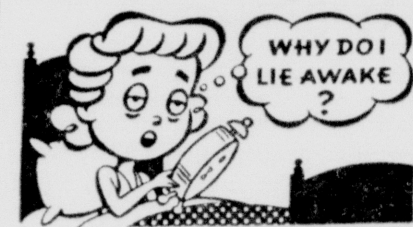

Then, to stimulate circulation further, wrap your shoulders in a Turkish towel that has been wrung out in hot water. Press it against you firmly. When you remove it your skin will really glow.

While the skin is still warm and glowing, apply a lubricating cream or baby oil. Mold the shoulders as you apply it. Then finish with this exercise:

Standing erect in perfect posture, with elbows bent and forearms close to sides and extended, push your chest forward as you push your elbows back as far as possible. Then bring the elbows forward and contract the chest. Do this five times at first; work up gradually to 20 times.

Pretty soon, you'll acquire the kind of golden tan you want for the rest of the summer.

Once you do, it's time to check the color of your lipstick and nail polish. It should be a shade that will complement your tan, make you look fabulously pretty and gather compliments for you.

Pink is a pretty and cool-looking color for both lipstick and nail polish. During the summer, you'll find that pink shades range all the way from pale tones to the deeper, more intense shades.

Her golden tan is shown to advantage by this girl, who sets it off with deep pink lipstick and nail polish. She uses a light, fragrant cologne as a cooling aid when the soaring temperatures leave her feeling wilted.

Newest of these is a dramatic pink. With your summer wardrobe in mind, it will bring out the best in pastels, beige, gray, navy and black.

Your summer cologne should, of course, be a light, refreshing fragrance. Using a heavy scent during sizzling weather will add to the humidity and your discomfort. So, choose a summer cologne that will help to prevent that wilted feeling that almost invariably accompanies hot humid days.

The makers of the new, pink lipstick offer a summer cologne, too. Inspiration for the trio came from artist Paul Gauguin's colorful paintings of Tahiti.

Guard Your Diet When At Beach

Sun and surf combine to do much for the beauty-seeking teen-ager. And since days at the beach are likely to be fun-filled, few teen-agers have to be coaxed to get their share of the treatment.

Unfortunately, many teen-agers who spend their summers at beach resorts become careless in their eating habits. The crowd gathers on the sands after breakfast and remains there until dinner, lunching on whatever can be bought at nearby food stands.

But a daily diet of hot dogs soaked in spices, soda pop, candy bars, ices and other novelty foods is certain to counteract the beauty benefits of sunning and swimming.

So, if you're lucky enough to spend your summer at a beach resort, resolve now to eat a wholesome lunch every day. Don't let the crowd sway you into forming figure and complexion-runing eating habits.

If you make up your mind ahead of time, you'll find it easier to stick to your decision. And don't attempt to compromise, for compromising nearly always is the beginning of defeat.

If wholesome foods are not available at the food stands (and most of the time they are), pack a sandwich and some fresh fruit for lunch. And be sure to drink your regular quota of milk. Treat yourself to soda pop after you've had the milk.

Bound To Court On Check Charge

Arraigned Saturday before Justice of Peace A. T. Sohlberg on a charge of issuing worthless checks, Gene Larson, 39, late of Rapid River, waived examination and was bound to circuit court for trial.

Bond was placed at $2,000 and Larson was committed to the county jail to await trial when he was unable to furnish bail.

Larson is alleged to have passed six checks drawn upon a Chicago bank. A checkup revealed that Larson at one time had an account with the bank but had closed it out about a year ago.

John Kronich, Forsyth, brought before Justice Sohlberg on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants, pleaded guilty and was fined $50, assessed court costs of $4.30 and had his operator's license revoked.

Kronich was involved in an accident at Rock Friday night when he drove into a parked auto.

Bomb Tests Of U. S. Illegal, India Says

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — India is demanding a halt in U. S. hydrogen bomb tests in the Marshall Islands until the World Court can rule on their legality under the U. N. trust agreements.

V. K. Krishna Menon, Indian delegate to the U. N. Trusteeship Council, made the demand in the Council Friday night. He charged the agreement for U. S. administration of the Pacific Islands did not give her the right to make them a nuclear weapons proving ground.

Siding with Russian and Syrian delegates in barbed attacks on the U. S. tests, Menon said the experiments threatened to destroy not only life in the islands but the islands themselves.

Mason Sears, the U. S. delegate replied no lives had been lost and no property destroyed. He reiterated the U. S. stand the tests were legal and added that they were part of the U. S. program for protection of the free world, including India.

Menon shot back: "India will take care of itself."

2-Auto Accident Hurts One Rider

One person was treated and released at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital Sunday following an accident 75 feet west of M-77 on highway US-2 at 1:06 p. m.

Charlotte Herman, 53, Marinette, Wis., suffered minor neck injuries. She was riding in a 1954 coach driven by Marcella Erditz Gallagher of West Allis, Wis. Moving at ten miles per hour after turning west onto US-2 from M-77, Mrs. Gallagher's automobile was rammed in the rear and suffered damage to the rear bumper.

Traveling west at 55 miles per hour, John F. Currier's 1952 sedan was going to pass the 1954 coach but since a car was approaching from the opposite direction Currier collided with the coach's rear. Currier's vehicle incurred damage to the front.

State Police Trooper Marvin Anderson issued a summons to Currier, charging him with "failure to have the vehicle under control." A Battle Creek machinist, Currier must report to Justice Court by July 21.

Arraigned in Justice Court today was Carl Johnson, Manistique, after residing in the Schoolcraft County Jail since Saturday. City Police arrested Johnson Saturday evening for supplying alcoholic beverages to minors.

Trooper Anderson arrested Howard Sien, Belleville, for improper overtaking and passing on a curve in a marked zone 4:05 p. m. Sunday on US-2 in Manistique Township. He also must report to Justice Court by July 21.

Acting Post Commander Jack Ehl apprehended Louis Gilchrist, Toledo, O., Saturday for speeding with a towed vehicle. Gilchrist posted a $10 bond. He was ticketed on US-2.

Captain Murray Lauds City Patrolman Gray

City Patrolman Lloyd Gray was commended Saturday by State Police Captain Robert Murray, Marquette Post, for his "alertness and observation" which resulted in apprehending Bruce Hammond and Robert Jackson July 1.

In a letter to Gray, Murray calls the act "an outstanding bit of police work." He also attributes Gray's efforts to ending a "crime wave that covered nearly the entire State of Michigan."

He continues "... these young bandits were armed and their weapons loaded for action and perhaps a police officer or other citizen is alive today because of your alertness."

Gray spotted Hammond and Jackson's car and arrested Hammond at the Snack Bar. Aided by State and City officers he then apprehended Jackson at the Cottage Grove Motel.

Two Local Outfits Divide Exhibitions

Two local teams split with Rapid River Saturday evening at Central Park in exhibition softball play. National Guard lost the first game, 8-6, while Top O' Lake edged by the Rivermen 5-4 on the strength of Ray Ranguette's solo homer in the ninth.

Ranguette broke up a 4-4 pitcher's duel between John Kasun, Lakers, and Thorson, Rivermen. Rapid River notched the game in the seventh, scoring two markers. The victors had picked up three in the third and one in the fifth before the game-winning blast.

Two seventh stanza tallies for the Rivermen dropped the Engineers after the loser's had tied up the contest with one in the sixth. The Guardians could not hold their 3-1 second inning lead, allowing Rapid River to drive a cluster of four home in the fourth.

Bay de Noc All-Stars Turn Back Cornell 8-2

The Bay de Noc League all-stars handed host Cornell an 8-2 lesson Sunday afternoon in the league's annual mid-season clash.

The Cornell Lions took a 1-0 lead in the second inning but saw it vanish when the stars shoved five runs across in the top of the third frame.

Paul Johnson of Trenary and Orville Olson of Cooks brought the stars to life in the third with doubles into right field.

Cornell's opening run came on a homerun smash by John Mar-tinac, third baseman who left today for the armed services. The Lions closed the gap a little with another run in the bottom of the third to make it 5-2 but the stars added single runs in the fifth, seventh and ninth inning to salt away the victory.

Dick Kauten of Garden rattled another double off starter Charley Camps in the fifth inning. Camps stepped down for LeCaptain in the sixth.

The all-stars collected 11 hits with Wayne VanRemortel of Garden and Virgil Pizzala registering two each.

Jack Morin opened on the mound for the all-stars with Joe Halverson and Breitman working in relief. The three all-star chucks held Cornell to four hits in the game that drew a large crowd at the Flat Rock diamond.

The victory was the second straight for the league's all-stars.

Northland Wins To Cut Gap On Leaders

Northland Bread edged closer to the leaders in the American League last night by tipping Clairmont Transfer 6-5 in a make-up game at Memorial Field.

The win was their sixth against four losses in league play, good for a solid fourth place in the standings.

In the nightcap the Merchants easily handled the Norway Bombers, 9-0 behind two-hit pitching by Leo Lancour.

The Merchants jumped off to a 5-0 lead in the first inning and were never in serious trouble as Lancour whiffed five. The two Norway hits were registered by Don Hill and John Martineau, who filled in at shortstop for the visitors. Mickey Kuchenberg and Kip Derouin had three hits each off Don Casanova who went the route for Norway.

Northland built up a 6-3 lead with three runs in the first and three in the fifth. After matching the three-run first inning, Clairmont whittled away on the lead with singles in the sixth and seventh but stranded runners in the last two innings.

Clairmont scored the three first inning runs on three walks, a wild pitch and a single by John Baker. North let loose with five hits for their three runs in the fifth. Tom St. Germain doubled and singles were hit by Bob Dufour, Angie Hirt, Tom Dufour and Joe Fried-

gen. Ken Dufresne allowed six hits while walking seven for Northland. Baker was rapped for 11 hits on the Clairmont mound. Tom Dufour led the Northland attack with three for four and Ken Olson tripled for the winners.

Terry Sawchuk Hurt In Automobile Crash

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Terry Sawchuk, goalie for the Detroit Red Wings hockey team, was to undergo surgery today for chest injuries suffered Sunday night when his car hit a tree in Livingston County.

Doctors at University Hospital said Sawchuk's condition was "good" and that he would be confined to the hospital for about a week.

The extent of his injuries was not disclosed.

A passenger of Sawchuk's, Theodore R. Griffin, 27, of Detroit, suffered multiple fractures of the right leg and hip.

Deputies said Sawchuk was driving north on McGregor Road when his car went out of control.

Ex-Spartan Quarterback Is State Golf Champion

JACKSON (AP)—Six years ago Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile had trouble breaking 90 on a golf course.

But the former Michigan State quarterback reigned today as Michigan amateur champion.

To win the title he had to go a record 22 holes Sunday, turning back Ed Ervasti of Royal Oak, at the Country Club of Jackson.

Not until he won the fourth extra hole with a par four was the 31-year-old insurance agent on top. He sank a five-foot birdie putt on the 18th green to carry the match to extra holes.

Ervasti missed a 15 foot birdie putt on the first extra hole and also a seven footer for a birdie at the 21st that would have ended it. Then he hit trees with his tee shot at the 22nd, hit another tree with his second and finally took a five while Johnson was on in two and down with two more.

It was the second straight year Ervasti has lost in the final. Reggie Myles Jr., of Lansing, beat him last year at Charlevoix.

In the morning Johnson closed out his semi-final match with Jack Gregory of Detroit by scoring a hole in one on the 165-yard No. 17 hole. His No. 6 iron shot dropped six feet from the hole and rolled in.

Ervasti, 40-year-old copper tubing salesman, had gained the finals by eliminating Harold Brink, 42-year-old Grand Rapids used car dealer who is the Sam Snead of the State Amateur. Seven times he has been a semi-finalist in the state but he has never won the title.

Jones, swimming Saturday night in the windup of the Japan-Hawaii invitational swimming tournament, swam the 400-meters in 5:31.7 to better the old world mark of 5:32.1 held by Carter of Hungary.

Cubs And Soo In Legion Finals

BULLETIN

STEPHENSON — Sault Ste. Marie decided the Esby Cubs 5-3 here today to win the 11th district American Legion Junior baseball championship. The Cubs came from behind to tie the score 3-3 in the eighth inning but Soo scored two in the ninth after two were out to capture the tournament title.

The Esby Cubs and Sault Ste. Marie battled into the finals of the 11th district American Legion Junior baseball tournament at Stephenson today and it's win-or-lose for both teams.

The finalists have met twice already in the tournament, exchanging 3-2 victories. Coach Al Ness' Cubs earned the first nod Saturday afternoon with ace chucker

John Berrigan pinning the defeat on the strong Soo contingent.

Last evening Soo evened it up with star pitcher John Goetz turning slugger in the ninth inning to break a 2-2 tie. Goetz opened the inning with a double, was sacrificed to third and scored on a single by McMaster to clinch the victory.

The Cubs and Soo were slated to meet at the Stephenson diamond at 11 (EST) today in the championship match.

Extra-Inning Win

Enroute to the finals the Cubs also turned back Stephenson 5-2 in 11 innings Sunday morning. Catcher Allan Erickson pulled the Cubs through with a double in the ninth and a triple in the 11th inning. Don Trotter hurled seven-hit ball for the Cubs and Mike Aman allowed only five hits from the Stephenson hill.

Escanaba's other entry in the tournament, the Indians, defeated Gladstone 4-0 Saturday with Gary Paler fashioning a three-hitter and then bowed 2-1 to the Soo yesterday in spite of a classy one-hit mound chore by Bill Ringuette.

The big Indians fireballer whiffed 14 and issued four walks. Soo won the game without the benefit of a base knock in the seventh inning when McMaster walked and Fazzari bunted and was safe on an error, first baseman Tony Kutches tossing the ball into right field on the play. The right fielder then fired the ball over Frank Katrinski's head at third and McMaster scored. Fazzari came in from third on a wild pitch to gain the victory for Goetz who whiffed 20, walked five and allowed five hits.

The Indians scored their run in the first inning when Billy Lancour, Kutches and Jim Greenwood hit singles and Bob Rodman was hit by the pitcher.

The lone hit off Ringuette was a grounder by left fielder Cooper to Lancour at shortstop whose throw to first missed the runner by a shade.

Snaps Win Streak

The loss to Soo last evening snapped a four-game tournament win streak for the Cubs. They had notched a pair of wins Friday over Powers and Gladstone before edging the Soo Saturday. Stephenson got by Carney 11-5 Saturday before becoming the Cubs' fourth victim Sunday in the extra-inning game.

The Soo used three pitchers in topping the Cubs. Bob Young worked the first six innings in which Escanaba took a 2-0 lead. Goetz came in to hurl the seventh and eighth in which the Soo tied the score at 2-2.

Having pitched the maximum 11 innings, Goetz retired for Pringle in the ninth. They allowed three hits all the way while Ricky Erickson, going the distance for the Cubs, scattered six.

When the Escanaba Indians eliminated Gladstone from the tournament Saturday, Gladstone's Adams fired a three-hitter to match the pitching of Gary Paler.

Wednesday Night Fight May Produce Challenger

By JACK HADCK

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano's 1955 opponent may emerge from Wednesday's heavyweight match at Madison Square Garden between Hurricane Tommy Jackson of New York and Nino Valdes of Havana.

Although Jackson was an early 2 to 1 favorite, the price is narrowing and Valdes might even enter the ring as the favorite. The 10-round bout will be seen on network (CBS) television.

Jackson weighed 192½ at Friday's checkup and Valdes 207.

The Hurricane, 22, beaten twice in 20 pro fights, is making his second start since he was defeated by Jimmy Slade. Valdes, 29, has an eight-fight winning streak and a 30-8-2 record. The Cuban is No. 2 among the heavyweight challengers and Jackson is No. 5.

Floyd Patterson, former Olympic champ, is expected to get back on the winning path tonight against Jacques Royer, the Frenchman who upset Tiger Jones at the Garden in May 14. It will be the first outing for the 19-year-old Brooklyn light heavyweight since his first loss, a disputed decision to Joey Maxim June 7.

The eight-round bout at St. Nicholas Arena in New York will be carried on DuMont television.

Willie Troy, a fast-rising mid-dleweight until he was stopped by Joey Giardello March 19, gets back to the wars against Tony Anthony, former Golden Gloves champion from New York, in the 10-round bout at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway tonight on ABC-TV.

The Bark River Barks opened second half play in the Tri County League by edging Daggett 8-6 but failed to gain ground on the league-leading Loretto Black-hawks who slipped past the Niagara Badgers 4-3. Powers beat Hardwood 15-11 in the remaining game.

It took the Barks 11 innings to subdue Daggett and they had to come from behind, 6-4, in the ninth inning to tie it up.

Joe Rademacher started it off in the ninth with a single and Ding

DeGrand poked another one-bagger, Wally Flath sent him home with a double to make it 6-6.

Ben Kleiman slammed a double to score Flath and Babe Kleiman in the top of the 11th to give the Barks their seventh win against one loss.

The Barks slammed two Daggett hurriers for 16 runs while Rademacher allowed eight hits and fanned a dozen batsmen.

Three homers featured the Powers-Hardwood slugfest. Bill Lawrence belted one for the losers while Bob Lawrence and Bob Cor-riveau slugged the four-baggers for Powers.

Ray Wells notched the win with Harold Charlevoix on the mound for the losers.

National Publix Is Under Way In Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—The ponderous National Public Links Golf Tournament got down to championship business today with no outstanding favorite for the title but with Texas a good bet through sheer weight of numbers.

This state has 20 contestants and an ex-Texas, Gus Moreland of Peoria, Ill., on which to pin its hopes. Two former champions were in the 200-man field that will be thinned down 125 today with 72 matches and 56 byes. They are Andy Szewicko of Sharnburg, Pa. who won in 1939, and Stan Biel of Yonkers, N.Y., who took the crown in 1950.

The tourney is being played on the 6,296-yard, par 71 Cedar Crest course.

Johnny Druze, Notre Dame end coach, was captain of the 1937 Fordham football team. He also played first base on the baseball squad. One of his diamond mates has Hank Borowy, who later pitched for the Yankees, Phillies and Cubs.

Richards Calls Chisox Anything But Quitters

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP)—Praised by their manager as "anything but quitters," the Chicago White Sox could survey with satisfaction today an amazing weekend climb back to pennant contention.

The Sox, who lost four straight one-run decisions to the Cleveland Indians just a week before, got four straight victories in a return series at Chicago.

The Sox beat the Indians in single games Friday and Saturday and completed the sweep with 3-0 and 8-2 triumphs Sunday as Billy Pierce pitched a two-hitter and Virgil Trucks a five-hitter.

Three Games Behind

It put the Sox only three games off the league-leading Indians' pace—same distance which separated them before the series at Cleveland. The New York Yankees are only a half game behind Cleveland after beating Washington Sunday.

Sox Manager Paul Richards was proud of his team's fighting comeback.

"We were fighting in Cleveland, too," he added. "We were in every game. I wouldn't know what to say if we'd looked as bad at Cleveland as the Indians did against us here."

What accounted for the turnaround?

"Well, I didn't see anybody quitting and we got some fine pitching."

Key Men Hurt

The Sox performance against the Indians was particularly impressive considering the absence of key men. George Kell, third baseman; Ferris Fain and Phil Cav-

The American League pennant chase is developing into a war of nerves.

The Yanks, who have been taking advantage of the second-divisions clubs, won their ninth in a row and 12th in their last 14 by slugging the Washington Senators the New York Giants still games in front of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Giants thump Pittsburgh 13-7 in the first game of a double-header, but drop

Chicago Manager Paul Richards merely shrugs off last month, when his club went into first place. "He expected it all along," he says. "The Pale Horse is the team to lick the Yanks, he says."

Good For Yankees
Right now, it appears that Stengel's hopes have been coming true. Last week, the Indians swept the Sox four straight games. Had bonus rookie Ron Jackson homered with two on in the third. That was all Trucks needed. Ray Narleski was tagged with the first-game loss and Bob Lemon the second.

Tigers Edge Orioles

DETROIT (AP)—The final chapter of a dramatic major league baseball story highlighting a single fateful pitch could well have been written Sunday.

Pay Raise Ends Banana Strike

TEGUCIGALBA, Honduras (P)—The U.S.-owned United Fruit Co. and Honduran labor leaders signed an agreement Friday night ending a two-month strike by 23,500 banana workers. The settlement raises minimum daily wages from $1.68 to $2.04.

Work was expected to be resumed Monday on the company's vast plantations.

The walkout had paralyzed banana operations on the north coast and spread to factories, breweries, and logging and mining companies. The United Fruit Co. estimated banana shipments would be less than half the rate before the strike because disease, floods and neglect have damaged the plantations.

The settlement—described as a one-year "working agreement"—was expected to cost the company about 3½ million dollars a year in wage boosts and fringe benefits. These include two-week paid vacations, increased medical aid and time and a half for overtime.

Boys' 4-H Club

The Boys' 4-H Club met at the home of Emmett Norden Wednesday, July 7 at 7 p. m.

Fred Bernhardt, Delta County 4-H extension leader was present. Mr. Bernhardt explained to the group the preparation and exhibiting of their projects for the Upper Peninsula State Fair. He also encouraged the boys to attend the 4-H Camp at Wells Park. The boys are much enthused about going to this camp and are raising money to defray the expenses entailed.

On July 19 a tour will be conducted to each of the member's homes to inspect their 4-H summer project. Mr. Bernhardt will accompany the boys on this tour.

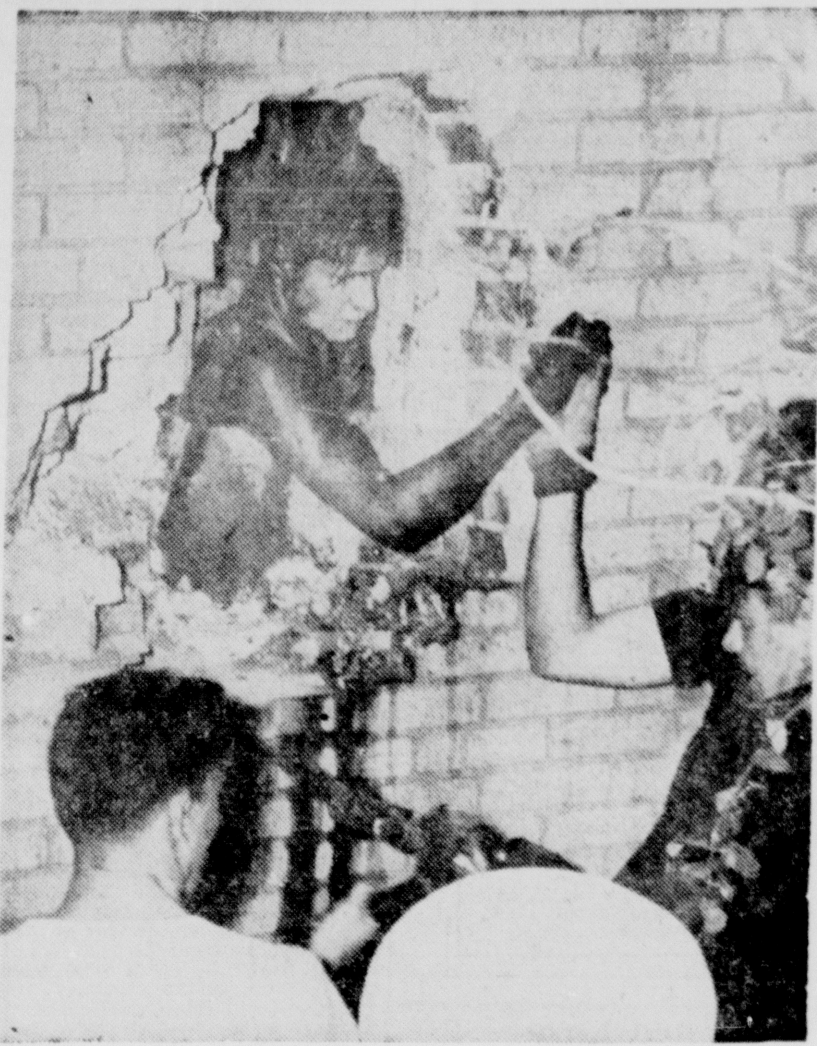

Softball was played after the meeting closed. Later refreshments were served.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Leon Clausen July 26.

Visit to Ford River

On Thursday evening the 4-H boys accompanied by their leaders and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred LaCrosse went to Ford River. The boys played the Ford River Junior 4-H boys and girls softball team. The score was 8 to 7 in favor of Perkins. The return game will be played 7:30 p. m. July 15, at Perkins. The public is invited to attend this game.

Terry Moore Hangs Up Revealing Gown As Church Protest

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (P)—Shapely Terry Moore's revealing night club dress that caused a mild sensation during her Las Vegas casino act went into retirement—after a spokesman for her church voiced objections.

The $3,500 low cut gown, transparent from the waist up—except for clusters of beads here and there—joined the white ermine bathing suit as apparel items Miss Moore wore with tempestuous results.

Unexplained objections—not from the soldier audiences—forced the actress to pack away the ermine suit she wore at camp shows in Korea last Christmas time.

Thursday night came the black beaded dress and criticism from a spokesman for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in which her brother does missionary work.

Said Terry, sometimes described as her own best press agent:

"I guess I wore it against my better judgment."

Clubs Big Carp

STURGIS (P)—A carp weighing 28½ pounds and measuring 39 inches was taken from nearby Klinger Lake by Eugene Weeks, 12, of East LeRoy.

The carp, spotted in shallow water, wouldn't go for Eugene's worm. So Eugene switched his pole for an oar, banged the fish over the head, and dragged it to shore.
